

On Friday, November 19th, the San Diego County Apartment Association presented the annual Mark of Excellence Awards at The Town and Country Resort in Mission Valley. Each year SDCAA seeks to recognize the best of the best within our industry. Sunrise Management boasted a victorious slate of award winners and stood out as a company who sets the standard for others to follow.

Here's a complete list of our winners, and thanks to all the fantastic communities who participated this year. Congratulations and a job well done!
